HIS BRIDE WAS A CHRISTMAS GIFT.

Jersey City Youth Wondering What He Was Going to Get. Meets Offer of Sweetheart.

105 leorge Geraghty, the Corresponding cretary of the Greenville Republican Club and well known in Jersey City, has just informed his friends that he got a bride as a Christmus gift, the young woman being Miss Lauretta Ecudder, of Linden avenue, Greenville. On Christmas Day, while the couple were visiting friends in New York, Geraghty asked Miss Saudder what she intended to give him for a Christmas

"I'll give you myself," the girl blush-igly pepited, and Geraghty, who had intending to propose to the girl for ing time, was equal to the occasion promptly rejdined:

Paine's Celery Compound stands unequalled as a cure for all the varied forms of rheumatism: At this season sands of American homes. Men and women, lame and crippled, and utterly helpless from the terrible disease, are being restored to activity, health and strength. Paine's Celery Compound is the only medicine that rescues and saves the despairing vic-tim who is told that he or she is incurable. Mr. L. A. Fleshman, Gap Mills, W. Va., writes about his happy experience with Paine's Celery Comnound. He savs:-

"I had rheumatism in my left arm and shoulder, could not sleep, and had no appetite. I visited my sister, who lives in Frankford, and she told me that she had been afflicted just as I was and Paine's Celery Compound had done her more good than any-thing she had tried, and she advised me to use it. I got one bottle and used it, and the result was I slept well, had a good appetite, and the have not felt them since; in fact, it has cured me and I feel like a new man.

Annual Sale of Notions and Small Wares.

To-morrow begins our annual trade movement in Notions and Dressmaking Supplies. It is an event the importance and fame of which has grown and extended with each succeeding year. It commands keenest interest from Dressmakers throughout the entire Eastern Section of our country. It stands pre-eminent in both its incomparable scope and its unequalled economical advantages. Unavoidable delay in announcing this annual event has led to our being fairly flooded with inquiries as to when it would begin. This is proof that thousands of Dressmakers and a large percentage of the general public have waited for the Simpson Crawford Co. Notion Sale, knowing how very ample will be their gain thereby. We express our positive belief that in the World of Notions the utmost limit of value-giving possibilities is
